Update on Production Status and Lead Times

BLOOMFIELD, Conn., March 23, 2020 – Lesro is still open for business and accepting new orders. Sales and administrative staff continue their work from home and are available to field your inquiries. Please use customerservice@lesro.com for all correspondence.

Although production and shipping are temporarily suspended through Friday, March 27th, we anticipate resuming these operations next week.

Please let us know if your order is critical or time-sensitive and we will make every effort to give it priority once production resumes.

If for any reason you are not able to accept delivery or need to make a schedule change please contact us immediately.

Note that standard lead times for new orders might need to be extended until we have a better grasp on the overall situation.

Thank you for your patience and cooperation as we work through this together.

COVID-19 Update

BLOOMFIELD, Conn., March 19, 2020 - Lesro's primary focus is on the safety and well-being of our employees, their families, and our local community. In dealing with the COVID-19 virus we are paying close attention to follow all of the requirements and best practices of the CDC and other governmental authorities.

While following current social distancing guidelines, Lesro's production facility here in Connecticut continues to operate and ship on a daily basis and we are making every effort to maintain originally scheduled ship dates.

We recognize that many businesses have closed temporarily. If for any reason you are not able to accept delivery, or you need to make a schedule change, please contact us immediately.

Conditions are evolving rapidly everywhere, and we are conscious that we may soon need to modify our operating hours, adjust our staffing levels, or implement other changes.

If we are no longer able to meet our delivery obligations, we will notify you promptly.
