Update on Production Status and Lead Times

BLOOMFIELD, Conn., June 29, 2020 – Lesro is 100% operational and shipping all orders within pre-covid lead times.

Safety during these unusual times continues to be our #1 goal as we maintain the highest level of quality. To keep production workers at safe distances from one another we have extended our production hours from 7am to 11pm.

As always, please let us know if your order is critical or time-sensitive and we will make every effort to give it priority in production.

If for any reason you are not able to accept delivery or need to make a schedule change, please contact us immediately.

Please use customerservice@lesro.com for all correspondence or call 800-275-7545.
